

Do you need help with:

- Interview confidence?
- Presentation skills?
- Job preparation skills?

If so, Fitted for Work can assist. Here are just a few of our free programs available to you right now:

Personal Outfitting

One of the first steps towards getting work is having a suitable outfit to wear to interviews. In just one hour, we will transform you from head to toe with quality, donated business clothing including shoes and accessories. You also have the option of returning for additional outfits when you start work.

Presentation Workshops

We will help you to effectively present yourself to prospective employers and make a great first impression. Our workshops and tutorials cover make-up, personal grooming and confident communication.

Job Preparation Workshops

We will help you prepare for job applications and interviews. Our trained professionals will help you to interpret job ads, address selection criteria and understand the interview process.

Next steps

You must be referred to Fitted for Work by a referring partner. They will book you into one of our services in Melbourne, CBD or Parramatta, NSW.

For more information, speak to your case manager.

