About Fitted for Work

At Fitted for Work, we believe in a future that is equal, positive and powerful for women in the workplace.

We provide women and gender diverse jobseekers with practical skills, knowledge and confidence to find work and build economic security.

Our tailored client services assist women with resume and cover letter support, personal outfitting, interview practice, job-readiness workshops, mentoring and much more. We understand that every employment journey is unique. Whether women are looking for their first role, returning to work after a career break or need extra work, we can help.

We believe in, we support, and we transform the work lives of women in the knowledge that when a woman is fitted for work, she is fitted for life.

The Client Journey

"I had lost direction, mostly faith in myself. I couldn't navigate what each employer was searching for and how to tailor my skills and experience.

Once engaged with Fitted for Work, I discovered how much they had to offer. My eyes opened to many possibilities.

It's safe to say I learnt how to be confident again, to present my best self."

Permission and Permits

Authority to fundraise

To meet our obligations under Fundraising Laws, you must register your fundraiser to receive an Authority to Fundraise certificate before you begin.

Please send your request to fundraising@fittedforwork.org with a short summary of your planned fundraising activity.

Rules and Regulations

Fundraising rules and regulations vary in every State and Territory. We recommend referring to the ACNC Fundraising Hub for specific advice for your location:

<https://www.acnc.gov.au/tools/factsheets/acnc-fundraising-hub>

Raffles

One of the most effective ways to raise funds can be through raffles. If your raffle has a total prize pool of under $5000, then you won't need a permit to run it. If the prize pool is $5000 and over, the Victorian Government requires you to apply for a minor gambling permit. However, no matter how big or small your raffle is please view the Raffle FAQs of the Victorian Government website before registering online with us. www.vcglr.vic.gov.au/gambling/raffle/licensee-resources/faqs

Receipts

All donations over $2 are tax deductible, providing they are a donation, and that the donor is not receiving anything in return.

Setting up your online fundraiser

Fundraising with Raisely
